

January Tennis Quiz

1. Player A hits a shot to Player B that appears to go through a hole in the net.
Whose call is it? (a) Player A (b) Player B (c) Neither, they should play a let
2. Player A is not sure of a call at her end of the court and asks her opponent, Player B, for her opinion. Player B says the ball was good.
What must Player A do now? (a) Accept Player B's call (b) Call for an official (c) Do whatever she wants, it is still her call to make
- 3 When a ball from another court rolls onto your court during a point in a singles match.
Who can call a let? (a) Only the player closest to the ball (b) Neither player, only officials can call lets (c) Either player can call a let as soon they see the ball
- 4 In a doubles match.
Who can call a service let? (a) The receiver (b) The receiver's partner (c) Any of the four players on the court
5. Player A's hat falls off onto the court during a point.
Can someone call a let? (a) Yes, but only Player A's opponent may call a let (b) Yes, but only Player A may call a let (c) No, no one may call a let in this situation